Owning Your
#SOULTATTOO

What I have learned from a few of you is this.

Seeing your Character Strengths listed out has breathed some new life into your precious hearts.

Like me, some of you have been duped into thinking your greatest strengths are liabilities.

Like me, some of you haven't fully understood that where your deepest joy meets another's need is where your Strengths are most beautifully expressed.

Like me, some of you needed new light to shine on your Strengths so you could see them for what they really are and brush off the dust from the journey in order to allow their luster to be seen again.

So what about you?

Is there a Strength, a tool in your belt, that is waiting to be seen for what it really is?

Is there a Strength your soul has forgotten that can bring you deeper joy this year?
